Understanding the Structure of the University of Cambridge International Examinations 1111 1 Paper 1 English

The University of Cambridge International Examinations 1111 1 Paper 1 English is primarily a written examination that tests candidates on reading comprehension and directed writing. Typically lasting around 1 hour and 30 minutes, this paper is divided into two main sections, each targeting different core skills essential for mastery of the English language.

Section A: Reading Comprehension

In this section, candidates are presented with one or more unseen passages—fictional or non-fictional—that they must analyze and interpret. Questions are designed to probe understanding of explicit content, inference, tone, and style. The passages may include descriptive, narrative, or argumentative texts, often requiring students to identify key ideas, vocabulary in context, and the writer's purpose or viewpoint. This segment tests not only the ability to decode language but also critical thinking and interpretative skills.

Section B: Directed Writing

Following the comprehension tasks, candidates face directed writing exercises where they must produce texts such as letters, articles, speeches, or reports. This section evaluates the ability to organize ideas coherently, employ appropriate tone and style for the intended audience, and utilize accurate grammar and vocabulary. The prompts usually relate to contemporary issues or scenarios, encouraging students to apply their language skills practically and persuasively.

Key Features and Assessment Criteria

The paper's design reflects the Cambridge Assessment International Education's commitment to developing learners who can communicate effectively and think critically. The marking scheme emphasizes several core competencies:
