The Sandeep Garg Phenomenon: Architect of a New Indian Business Pedagogy In the dense ecosystem of Indian business education, where legacy institutions and emerging thought leaders coexist in a dynamic tension, Sandeep Garg has emerged not just as an educator but as a cultural force reshaping how the next generation of Indian managers conceptualizes economics, leadership, and global competitiveness. His class, “Business Studies Class 11” at a premium private institution, transcends the conventional boundaries of high school curricula, operating at the intersection of pedagogical innovation, geopolitical realism, and the evolving demands of a multipolar economy. To understand Garg’s influence is to trace the broader transformation of India’s economic imagination—from post-liberalization optimism to the complexities of deglobalization, digital disruption, and ethical capitalism. Garg’s journey into pedagogy was not reckless but deliberate, forged in the crucible of real-world observation and academic rigor. Originally trained in engineering economics at the Indian Institute of Technology (IIT) Delhi, he began his career in corporate strategy at a multinational firm operating in Southeast Asia. The dissonance between theoretical business models taught in academia and the chaotic, adaptive realities of emerging markets became his primary catalyst. He observed that students emerged ill-equipped—not due to ignorance, but because education failed to arm them with the cognitive tools to navigate ambiguity, cultural complexity, and systemic risk. This insight crystallized during his tenure as a regional analyst, where he routinely advised firms on market entry, regulatory navigation, and stakeholder alignment across South and Southeast Asia. In 2015, Garg returned to India not to join a boardroom, but to reimagine the classroom as a laboratory for future-ready leadership. His “Business Studies Class 11” was born from this conviction: a curriculum that does not merely transmit facts but cultivates a mindset—one that sees business not as a technical discipline, but as a socio-political ecosystem. Unlike traditional curricula that relegate economics to static charts and finance to formulaic exercises, Garg’s course integrates real-time data from India’s evolving economic landscape—from demonetization’s ripple effects to the rise of digital public infrastructure
