The availability of the good woman of setzuan full text allows readers and practitioners to fully engage with Brecht's innovative dramaturgy and his signature technique of Verfremdungseffekt, or the "alienation effect," which aims to provoke critical reflection rather than emotional immersion.

Brecht's work is situated within the larger framework of epic theater, which contrasts traditional dramatic forms that prioritize catharsis and identification. The full text reveals his use of episodic scenes, direct addresses to the audience, and songs that interrupt the narrative flow to emphasize socio-political messages.
