Geographical Features

Physical geography played a major role in Rome's expansion and defense strategies. Key features might include: - The Mediterranean Sea – central to trade and military campaigns. - The Tiber River – running through the city of Rome. - The Alps – natural barriers to northern invasions. - The Italian Peninsula – the heartland of Roman civilization.

How to Use the Ancient Rome Map Activity Answer Key Effectively

Simply having an answer key isn't enough; knowing how to utilize it can elevate your understanding significantly.

Step 1: Attempt the Activity Independently
