Bandler, born in 1942 in Washington, D.C., did not emerge from a traditional academic lineage. His early life was marked by instability—moves across the American South, a fractured family environment, and a restless intellectual curiosity that led him not to a university degree, but to grassroots exploration of alternative psychology. It was in the 1970s, amid the countercultural ferment and the crisis of behaviorism’s limitations, that Bandler crossed paths with John Grinder, a linguistic anthropologist at the University of California, Berkeley.
